NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

Effective: April 14, 2003

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Privacy Promise

Sandy City Fire Department understands that your medical and health information is personal. Protecting your health information is important. We follow strict federal and state laws that require us to maintain the confidentiality of your health information.

How We Use Your Health Information

When you receive care from the Fire Department, we may use your health information for treating you, billing for services, and conducting our normal business known as health care operations. Examples of how we use your information include:

Treatment – We keep records of the care and services provided to you. Health care providers use these records to deliver quality care to meet your needs. For example, your doctor may share your health information with a specialist who will assist in your treatment. Some health records, including some confidential communications with a mental health professional and some substance abuse records, may have additional restrictions on the use and disclosure under state and federal laws.

Payment – We keep billing records that include payment information and documentation of the services provided to you. Your information may be used to obtain payment from you, your insurance company, or other third party. We may also contact your insurance company to verify coverage for your care or to notify them of upcoming services that may need prior notice or approval. For example, we may disclose information about the services provided to you to claim and obtain payment from your insurance company or Medicare.

Health Care Operations – We use health information to improve the quality of care, train staff and students, provide customer service, manage costs, conduct required business duties, and make plans to better serve our communities.

Other Services We Provide

We may also use your health information to:

- Recommend treatment alternatives;
- Share information with family or friends involved in your care or payment for your care, when appropriate;
- Share information with third parties who assist us with treatment, payment, and health care operations. Our business associates must protect your information by following our privacy practices;

More Information

For more information about the practices and rights described in this notice:

- Contact our Privacy Office at the phone number and address on the back of this notice.

Sharing Your Health Information

There are limited situations when we are permitted or required to disclose health information without your signed authorization. These situations are:

- For public health purposes such as reporting communicable diseases, work-related illnesses, or other diseases and injuries permitted by law; reporting births and deaths; and reporting reactions to drugs and problems with medical devices;
- To protect victims of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence;
- For health oversight activities such as investigations, audits, and inspections;
- For lawsuits and similar proceedings;
- When otherwise required by law;
- When requested by law enforcement as required by law or court order;
- To coroners, medical examiners, and funeral directors;
- For organ and tissue donation;
- For research approved by our review process under strict federal guidelines;
- To reduce or prevent a serious threat to public health and safety;
- For workers' compensation or other similar programs if you are injured at work; and
- For specialized government functions such as intelligence and national security.

All other uses and disclosures, not described in this notice, require your signed authorization. You may revoke your authorization at any time with a written statement.
